

Objectives for the HLGU Master of Science in Education

Special Reading K-12 Track, Teaching and Learning and Teaching and Learning with Initial Certification Track

Statement of Mission and Purpose:

The mission of Hannibal-LaGrange University is to provide an excellent education in both liberal arts and professional disciplines in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Christian faith and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

The mission of the Graduate and Online Division is to provide an excellent education that is accessible, innovative, and is offered in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Biblical worldview and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

Objectives for the Graduate Education major:

1. Graduates will develop a deep understanding of the critical concepts and principles of the their respective discipline to advance their students for college and career readiness standards.
2. Graduates will participate in effective and high-quality clinical practices to develop knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions to positively impact student learning and development.
3. Graduates will be selected from applicants who have high academic achievement and high ability to meet the diverse needs of today's skills.
4. Graduates will illustrate the impact of their teaching on P-12 student learning and development, classroom instruction, and their schools.
5. Graduates will demonstrate proficiency in effecting positive change in their P-12 students' learning through evidence-based assessment. Data collected from graduates will influence and establish priorities to enhance the program.
6. Graduates will define, apply and demonstrate Christ-like attitudes, values, and worldview in the planning, the managing, and interactions for an educator.

Our purpose is to help you discover
God's purpose for your life.