FINANCIAL REQUIREMENT FOR APPLICANTS WITH F-1 STUDENT VISAS

Under current Immigration and Naturalization Service regulations, international students must provide evidence of sufficient financial resources to support all their living and educational expenses during their stay in the United States. In order to receive financial approval for admission and a Form I-20, an applicant must complete the Financial Form and provide all required documents to verify that sufficient funds are immediately available. The University reserves the right to require tuition and/or housing deposits, if deemed necessary.

These figures do not include travel expenses or Health insurance. Health insurance is mandatory for international students. Student should anticipate an annual increase of five to seven percent due to inflation and other factors.

Please note that the Financial Form and proper financial verification, no older than 3 months, must be provided for financial clearance to be processed. The reference to "Bank Statement" or "Bank Verification" in the form means that the financial institution holding the source of funds must provide a statement indicating the amount available in U.S. currency. If necessary, multiple bank statements may be provided to verify available funds.

BANK VERIFICATION

This is to certify that the funds indicated in the financial statement are on deposit or are being held in the name of the Sponsor named above at the savings institution named below. Verification of amounts is without liability for the bank or its officials.
