Fireside Café

The Fireside Café hosts a vending machine, refrigerator, and a microwave for student use. The library also hosts a coffee club which offers coffee, tea, and cocoas during the fall and spring semesters for a suggested donation of one dollar per cup.

For more beverages, The Loft is close by. On the top floor of the L.A. Foster Student Center, the café offers a variety of coffee, smoothies, and snacks to purchase.

HLGU Roland Library Community Borrower Membership

A community borrower membership entitles the member to check out books from the HLGU Roland Library, request interlibrary loans, and ask for reference assistance.

If library computers are not in use by students, the HLGU Roland Library staff may allow a community borrower member the use of a computer for educational purposes only. Computer use by a community borrower member is limited to one hour per day.

When computer use by community borrower members is allowed, the member is required to present a picture ID and their community borrower membership card. Members must sign in and abide by the Hannibal-LaGrange Computer User Policy.

Please note: HLGU computer accounts and log-ins are not available to the public. At this time, the Community Borrower Membership does not include MOBIUS privileges (online requesting or visiting check-out).

HLGU Roland Library Community Borrower Membership Cost & Fees

The cost of an HLGU Community Borrower Membership is $27.50 per year. Memberships are valid for one year from enrollment date.

To enroll, simply complete the registration information sheet available at the Roland Library Circulation Desk. Your membership card will be issued to you. This card must be presented each time you check out an item.

Nondiscrimination Statement

Hannibal-LaGrange University complies with all federal and state nondiscrimination laws and does not engage in prohibited discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, disability, national or ethnic origin or ancestry, military or veterans status, or genetic information in either employment or the provision of services. As an institution controlled by the Missouri Baptist Convention, the University is exempted from some provisions of nondiscrimination laws, including the prohibition against religious discrimination in employment under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and, to the extent compliance would conflict with the University's religious tenets, the prohibition against sex discrimination under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

A student or one seeking admission to Hannibal-LaGrange University, who claims to have been unlawfully discriminated against due to any University regulation, policy, or the official action of any University employee should submit a written complaint to Karry Richardson at HLGU, 2800 Palmyra Road, Hannibal, Missouri, 63401 or via email at krichard@hlg.edu

An employee or one seeking employment who claims to have been unlawfully discriminated against due to any University regulation, policy, or the official action of any University employee should submit a written complaint to Dori Colborn at Business Office, 2800 Palmyra Road, Hannibal, Missouri, 63401 or via email at dori.colborn@hlg.edu at dori.colborn@hlg.edu
