

Adult & Graduate Studies Division

Objectives for the HLGU Master of Arts in Leadership Christian Ministry Track

Statement of Mission and Purpose:

The mission of Hannibal-LaGrange University is to provide an excellent education in both liberal arts and professional disciplines in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Christian faith and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

The mission of the Graduate and Online Division is to provide an excellent education that is accessible, innovative, and is offered in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Biblical worldview and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

Objectives for the Graduate Leadership Major with a Christian Ministry Track:

1. The graduate student will define and apply the central concepts and theories central to leadership by identifying and utilizing the functions of management to plan, organize, control, and lead in an organization.
2. The graduate student will define, apply and demonstrate Christ-like attitudes, values, and worldview in planning, managing, and interactions and will recognize the importance of ethical practices and behavior when planning, making decisions, and faced with moral dilemmas.
3. The graduate student will trace and apply key leaders in the Old and New Testament and will define and evaluate the history, Christian doctrine and practices and the application of this in one's personal journey with Christ.
4. The graduate student will define and assesses the implementation of leadership in the church and the effect of organization, administration and spiritual formation to the community, the congregation, outreach witnessing, the family and the Christian leader.

Our purpose is to help you discover God's purpose for your life.

revised 05/16