

Objectives for the HLGU Associate of Nursing (ASN) Major

Statement of Mission and Purpose:

The mission of Hannibal-LaGrange University is to provide an excellent education in both liberal arts and professional disciplines in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Christian faith and learning in preparing graduates for both personal and career effectiveness.

The mission of the Hannibal-LaGrange University Craigmiles School of Nursing is to achieve excellence in nursing education by maintaining high academic standards in a distinctively Christian environment. Such an environment encourages the highest development of the student intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually.

Objectives for the Nursing (ASN) Major:

The end-of-program student learning objectives of the Hannibal-LaGrange University ASN program are to produce graduates who will:

1. Practice safe, competent, and cost-efficient nursing care to diverse individuals, families, and communities.
2. Provide caring and holistic nursing interventions in an attempt to help the person maximize self-care abilities throughout the lifespan while promoting, maintaining, and restoring health or providing end-of-life care.
3. Communicate and collaborate effectively with individuals, families, communities, and other members of the health care team.
4. Demonstrate critical thinking in clinical decision making through utilization of the nursing process and research from nursing and related disciplines.
5. Utilize principles of management and leadership in diverse settings.
6. Exhibit competence with current technology.
7. Engage in the practice of professional nursing within the legal, ethical, and regulatory frameworks.
8. Assume responsibility for lifelong learning, personal, and professional growth.

Our purpose is to help you discover
God's purpose for your life.
