

Adult & Graduate Studies Division

Objectives for the HLGU Master of Education in Educational Administration K-12 Principalship

Statement of Mission and Purpose:

The mission of Hannibal-LaGrange University is to provide an excellent education in both liberal arts and professional disciplines in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Christian faith and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

The mission of the Adult and Graduate Division is to provide an excellent education that is accessible, innovative, and is offered in a distinctively Christian environment that integrates Biblical worldview and learning in preparing graduates for personal and career effectiveness.

Program Objectives for the MED Major:

The effective educational leader will:

1. develop and implement a vision for the school to guide the learning of all students to engage as a visionary leader.
2. interact in a professional manner with students, staff, and community to connect with Christ-like attitudes and values applied to all aspects of the learning environment as a relational leader.
3. continue professional growth, actively engage in reflective practice and apply new knowledge and understanding to drive appropriate change to become an innovative leader.
4. ensure a guaranteed and viable curriculum, guarantee effective instructional practice, coordinate the use of effective assessments and promote professional learning as an instructional leader.
5. implement operational systems, oversee personnel and ensure the equitable and strategic use of resources as the managerial leader of the school.

Our purpose is to help you discover
God's purpose for your life.