HELP PREVENT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

- Don't harass, exploit, threaten, or assault people.
- Step up if something doesn't seem right.
- Take care of yourself and take care of your friends.
- Understand how alcohol and drugs effect the body, mind, and ability to consent.
- Discuss and respect boundaries of everyone around you.

Get Educated

- Explore HLGU's Title IX website: https://www.hlg.edu/about-hlgu/non-discrimination-policy/
- Read the Title IX policy: http://www.hlg.edu/wp-content/uploads/2020/08/Title-IX-Policy-August-14-2020.pdf

IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEXUALLY HARASSED OR ASSAULTED

- Get to a safe place and seek emergency help.
- Get support from loved ones and confidential resources.
- Report to HLGU's Title IX Officer at any time, in whatever way is most confortable to you.

HOW TO REPORT

You have several choices:

Report online by visiting HLGU's Title IX Website

Report to the Title IX Coordinator Rebekah Garner

Provide as much or as little information as you want; visit in person, make a phone call, or email.

Although it is not required, you're encouraged to report to the police; HLGU will help you work with them.

Reporting to the Title IX Coordinator will enable the college to take measures to stop the behavior, prevent it from occurring in the future, and provide support, resources, and protection.
